

Womanhood Quotes

Get a quote from someone in your community who identifies as a woman about what womanhood means to them. Remember, questions about who we are can be very personal, so be sure to let the person know why you are asking and that they can choose not to answer!

Quotes about womanhood:

“My mother told me to be a lady. And for her, that meant be your own person, be independent.”

Ruth Bader Ginsburg, second woman to serve on the US Supreme Court

“Like all women, my path to womanhood is unique. No two paths are the same. Each of us travel with different privileges, challenges, and perspectives - some limiting, others illuminating.”

Sarah McBride, first openly transgender state senator in America

“I have chosen to no longer be apologetic for my femaleness and my femininity. And I want to be respected in all of my femaleness because I deserve to be.”

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, writer

“One of the best things that ever happened to me is that I’m a woman.”

Marilyn Monroe, actor

“Too often women are not supported enough or are discouraged from choosing their path. I hope together we can change that.”

Serena Williams, tennis champion

“

”

_____,
Name

Description of who they are

Some possible follow-up questions:

- What are your favorite and least favorite parts of being a woman?
- How have your feelings about being a woman changed over your life?
- How have other parts of your identity, such as your race, religion, family background, or education, influenced how you feel about being a woman?

Source: www.lessonimpossible.com/blog/womens-history-month

